Don't Pay Two Prices for Clothes

We like to get hold of the man who insists on having tailor made clothing and show him a suit of our Alfred Benjamin "correct clothes for men." The most minute examination will show them fully the equal of tailor-made garments in style, tailoring and materials, while the fit is perfect. They cost about one-half the price of tailor-made clothing of the same quality, style, etc.

All this can be proven before making your purchase.

FOUR SUITS DISMISSED

Stockyards Fight Has Now Been Settled.

INSURANCE PAID FOR FIRE LOSS

Honolulu Stockyards Co. Troubles
Disposed of and Everyone Satisfied.

The financial troubles which have involved the Honolulu Stock Yards Co., since the destruction of the newly built stables by fire August 16, 1901, have been satisfactorily settled and the four suits growing out of the disaster were dismissed yesterday morning by Judge Robinson.

The suits in which a dismissal was ordered were as follows: Honolulu Stockyards Co. vs. Union Assurance Co.; Honolulu Stockyards Co. vs. German American Insurance Co.; Lewers & Cooke vs. Honolulu Stockyards Co. and M. L. Smith vs. Honolulu Stockyards Co.

The complications which grew out of the fire and led to the above four suits were many and curious. M. L. Smith was the contractor who built the stables and who had received $12,500 from the Honolulu Stockyards Co. for the work, which was $4,500 less than the contract price, which was sued for. The Stockyards Co. claimed that the building had not been accepted and filed a counter claim for $12,500 which amount had been paid to Smith before the fire. Lewers & Cooke came in with a claim against both parties to the above suit for materialmen's lien amounting to $4,784.09, both Smith and the corporation being made defendants, the material having been furnished for the building.

The Honolulu Stockyards Co., had insured their interest in the building for $7,500; $5,000 with the Union Assurance Co., and $2,500 with the German American Insurance Co., both of whom refused to pay the policies, claiming that Smith was a co-insurer. Smith, however, had not insured the structure while it was being built, so he had no chance to recover for the loss from the insurance companies in any event.

The basis of settlement which resulted in the dismissal of all four suits was the payment by the insurance companies of the two policies, for a trifle less than $7,500. A portion of this amount went to Lewers & Cooke for payment of the material, and a portion to M. L. Smith, the contractor, who also was responsible for the building material furnished. The building as it stands went to the Honolulu Stockyards Co., which has not as yet come to any conclusion as to whether it shall be rebuilt. The settlement was acceptable all around, all parties agreeing to the dismissal of the suits.

IT'S ALL TALK.

Yes, But it is Honolulu Talk the Kind that Counts in Honolulu.

Talk that tells.

Talk that's endorsed.

Every day talk by people who know.

City talk, kidney talk.

Do kidneys talk?

Well, yes, both loud and long.

You should learn the kidney language.

Backache in kidney talk means kidney ache.

Lame back means lame kidneys.

A bad back is simply

The kidneys talking trouble.

Here's Honolulu talk and kidney talk:

Mrs. Grace Dodd of 524 Young street,

this city, informs us: "My sufferings were of a complicated nature; I had enlargement of the liver, according to the doctors' diagnosis, and besides this was troubled with severe pains in the right side, and a lame back. I had these backache pains for two years, and so severe were they at times that they prevented me from sleeping.

All the medicines I tried were of no avail until I got some of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills at the Hollister

Drug Co.'s store, and used them. The benefit obtained was wonderful; the backache was entirely relieved and I cannot be too grateful for this since I now enjoy good sleep—one of the chief of Nature's blessings."

It is important to get the same medicine which helped Mrs. Dodd—DOAN'S

BACKACHE KIDNEY PILLS. Therefore ask for Doan's Backache Kidney Pills.

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all chemists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, or

CANNOT GET THE CASH

Mistake of the Chinese Consul Causes Trouble.

Through a mistake in the power of attorney left by the Chinese Consul, Yang Wei Pin, the ten per cent payments due to the Chinese fire claimants were refused yesterday by Treasurer Kepolka. The action of the treasurer was approved by Deputy Attorney General J. W. Cathcart, who held that the assignment was not one upon which payments could be made.

The Chinese Consul before leaving executed a general power of attorney to Poon Quai Leung and W. A. Whiting jointly, which gave them the right to collect from fire claims payments, any amounts due him, but did not give the power to collect the money for the Chinese claimants themselves. The original assignment of the claim as given by the claimant, contains no authorization of the right to substitute anyone for the consul. On this showing Mr. Kepolka yesterday refused to cash the warrants and the matter will probably be hung up until the consul returns, or forwards another power of attorney satisfactory to the government officials.

The Japanese claims are all right, though they have not been presented as yet. There is a general power of attorney to S. Ozaki and by him an assignment to H. A. Bigelow, so there will be no trouble on that score.

LIFE PROBLEM CLUB AT DINNER

Weekly Gatherings at the Y. M. C. A. Are Becoming Very Popular.

"The Home—How to Make it Attractive, Hospitality, and the Enjoyments of Home Life," formed the subject of the meeting of the Life Problem Club at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday evening. The literary discussion was preceded by a gastronomic one. Eighteen young men, who are constant attendants upon the meetings of the Life Problem Club, sat down to an excellent dinner at 6 o'clock, which was served in a class room upstairs. Clam chowder soup, mutton stew and meats, together with bread and butter, corn and other vegetables, and coffee, supplemented with sherbet and cake, completed a fine dinner. The weekly dinners are more and more popular and seem just the right thing to precede the discussion of the home.

W. L. Whitney made an address upon house life and its enjoyment. The home was the place not alone for the head thereof to merely partake of his meals, sleep and read the morning paper, but where the wife and family should be brought into close communion with his recreation. If his wife is taken into the participation of his joys and sorrows the home life becomes more agreeable to each. Then the home should be hospitable and the stranger taken in and given access to its comforts. True hospitality was the opening of the doors to the one without a home. He touched upon divorces as tending to uproot the social life of the nation. The safeguard to the national life was to prevent divorces, which menaced home life.

A general discussion was indulged in at the conclusion of Mr. Whitney's address, mostly by the bachelors present, who coincided with the speaker that the home was truly the place where comfort and happiness were to be procured.
